

Announcement for COIN 15-01 “Non-Traditional (Electronic) Advertising for Contract Bids or Proposals”

03/30/2015

Announcement:

COIN 15-01 “Non-Traditional (Electronic) Advertising for Contract Bids or Proposals” was posted to the Local Assistance LAPM Publications website at

<http://www.dot.ca.gov/hq/LocalPrograms/COIN/index.htm>

Background:

The traditional method of advertising for contract bids or proposals is through a “newspaper receiving wide local circulation.”

Clarification:

This COIN informs local agencies of the allowable use of non-traditional (electronic) advertising methods, the broad parameters covering such non-traditional methods, and the need to clearly document those advertising methods utilized.

Impacts:

This COIN pertains to advertising for contract bids/proposals for construction contracts as well as formal A&E consultant qualifications/proposals.
